Oakland Livingston Human Service Agency Elects New Board Members

Pontiac, Mich., April 15, 2009 – Members of the Oakland Livingston Human Service Agency (OLHSA) Board of Directors gathered last month at the annual Board of Directors dinner to elect and swear in new board members. Newly elected board members include District 6 Oakland County Commissioner Jim Runestad, Charles Jones of Howell, and Khalfani Stephens of Pontiac.

“These three community members are strong and valued additions to the OLHSA Board of Directors,” said Ronald B. Borngesser, Chief Executive Officer of OLHSA. “We are proud to have them join our organization and are looking forward to their participation in the years to come.”

Commissioner Jim Runestad has worked and been active in Oakland County for over 25 years. He joins OLHSA Board of Directors with a broad spectrum of public service experience, as well as the business savvy gained from owning and operating Runestad Financial Services.

Mr. Kalfani Stephens comes to the OLHSA Board of Directors with a Bachelor of the Arts from the University of Michigan, a Master of Business Administration from Wayne State University and four years of experience serving the City of Pontiac through the Economic Growth Group. He has worked with the Spanish-speaking community in Pontiac, and been actively involved in the redevelopment of the city.

Mr. Charles Jones is a retired teacher from the Taylor School District with a bachelor’s degree in business administration and a master’s degree in special education. He brings extensive volunteer experience to the OLHSA Board of Directors including work at community food banks, participation on the OLHSA Advisory Board, and work at the senior center in Howell.

Oakland Livingston Human Service Agency is a non-profit founded in 1964. Our mission is to enable the low-income, elderly and residents with disabilities in Oakland and Livingston Counties to gain the knowledge and skills to become self-sufficient. We have over 95 programs and provided over 277,000 services in 2008. Helping people. Changing lives.
